Dear Linda
I am really glad that I met a nice girl like you in my years at Holladay. Don't forget me and I'll never forget you. I wish you had of stuck in everything you do in front of me. 207-7185
Love
Peggy

Linda,

Remember the Buty good luck in the future with everything you do. Hank

Linda,
Good Luck Always,
Stay as nutty as you are. See you walking up 25th. Love
Maria

as you go down the banner of life remember the rug as a splendor cup like art.

Linda
your nutty person

Linda
you're really a change person but I like you that way.
You go from the ground. Good friend you may find you do

Linda:
 When you feel down
 with nothin' to do
 - ain't got no boo? - then come to my place
 - it won't be a waste -
 you'll S-O-M-F!

Gregory
 (D.G.L '77)

P.S. Best Wishes in whatever (and whomever) you do in life - and if you don't make the Sixers - big deal - I still love ya! Good luck!

Dear Linda,

It's very hard trying to write something to you after 12 years. (so it doesn't sound like the same old thing) I hope you find happiness, success and contentment in the future.
 Take care of yourself and most of all remember to keep in touch after we graduate.

Love,

Pat

P.S. You are a great friend that I am happy to know and love.

Dear Linda,
 Good Luck
 (at Dino's too) Smooth sailing on the sea of success

Love

A fully mature person has a unwavering sense of her own self, knowing where she begins and where she leaves off.
This is not an easy discovery, nor a quick one.
We grow into it and up to it.
Perhaps the greatest gift Hallahan has given us is the awareness, that this growth is not only a possibility but a responsibility.

"Listen carefully to this. A farmer went out sowing. Some of what he sowed landed on the footpaths . . . some landed on rocky ground . . . some landed among thorns . . . and some seeds finally landed on good soil and yielded grain that sprang up to produce at a rate of thirty-sixty and a hundred fold."

Mark 4: 1-8

The dependence of a man on his land is a very beautiful, if risk-laden experience. Beautiful too is the care which a man takes to help the land respond to the seed that is sown.

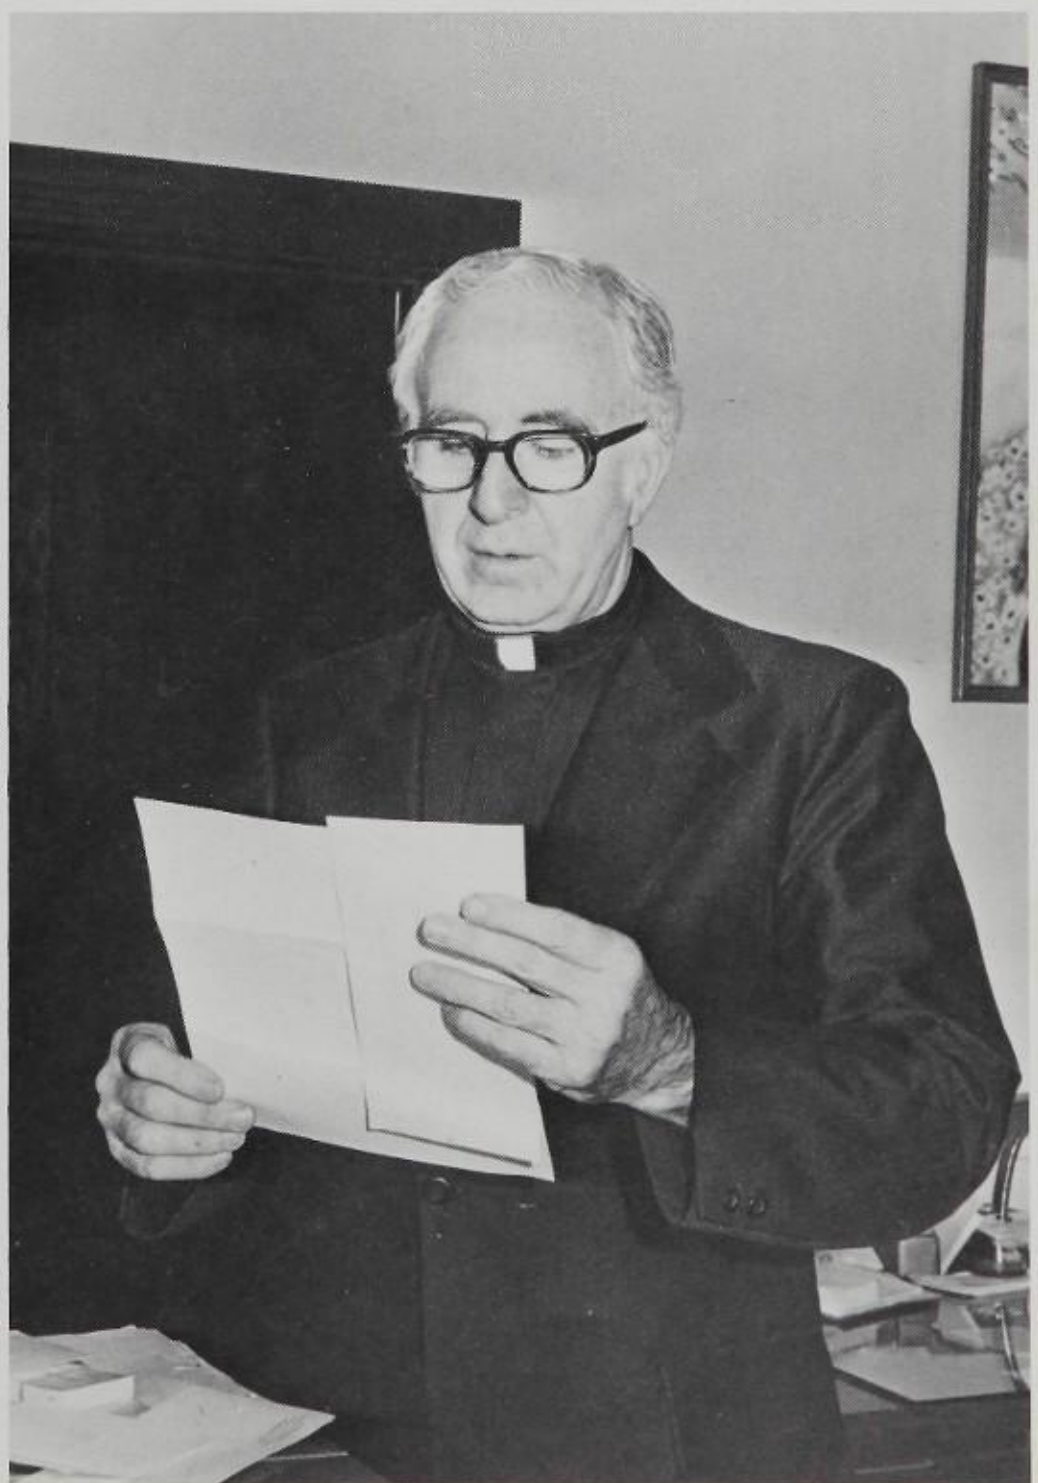

Our principal, Father John Rilley, like the sower, spreads the Work of God among us. And as each type of ground responds to the seed in its own way, so too do we. His faith and love for God and for us teach us through his actions that his work with us is truly "founded of love."

*Linda,
All the best.
Thanks for the memories

“REMEMBER IT IS AS GREAT A POINT TO DIRECT YOUR ACTIONS, AND HAVE SOME SIMPLE GOOD INTENTION
EVEN IN THE LEAST. IF A PAINTER SHOULD DRAW LINES WITHOUT PROPOSING ANY IDEA TO HIMSELF, HIS WORK WOULD BE A BLOT.”

Elizabeth Ann Seton

The Gospel parable of the mustard seed was clearly fulfilled in the story of Elizabeth Ann Seton's life and accomplishments. The single seed of her zeal has produced not one great tree but many. The simple cells of Catholic education planted by her in Baltimore have germinated into the huge American parochial school system. The primitive Catholic orphan asylum established by her in Philadelphia was the parent of hundreds of modern orphanages and child care centers. The first native American community of religious women which she founded has flourished and continues to serve mankind.

The pattern of this woman's life was a pattern of growth. She never stood still, never rested content. A warm, delightful, intelligent and holy woman, she shared with all persons the common experience of living, showing how they might be enjoyed or endured, as the case might be, realizing that each is a God-given opportunity to love.

LIFE WAS MEANT TO BE LIVED.
AND CURIOSITY
MUST BE KEPT ALIVE.
ONE MUST NEVER,
FOR WHATEVER REASON, TURN HIS BACK ON LIFE.

Eleanor Roosevelt

People aren't "made" by themselves or by anyone else: they are released to be what they always were—and what releases them is the touch of life. For thirty years of her life, the woman who was to change the world lay in a sound if not too comfortable sleep back of the thorns and thickets of the dying age into which she was born. The time came, probably during that most terrible of wars, when the realization came to her—the burning sense of need, of human suffering—which is to say, life. And the rest of her history was the playing out of that tremendous discovery.

Each year, the Senior class presents to the underclass-women a small piece of their experience. It takes the form of a show given on a day we call Hallahan Day. This year we chose the theme of "My Fair Lady"—the blossoming of a frightened, somewhat unpolished freshman into the mature and seemingly perfect senior. "Our smiles, our frowns, our ups, our downs" helped us in our representation of our unforgettable lives here.

Genesis II

Genesis II is a multi-media program dealing with human and spiritual development. It is a process which brings together the insight of traditional Christian spiritual writers with the findings of modern developmental psychologists.

This program is based on the conviction that people are capable of developing, that this is a life long event, and through reflection and meditation a person can become increasingly aware of and capable of assuming responsibility for his own development.

Father Riley introduces material to be explored to Junior Student Council members at a Genesis II meeting.

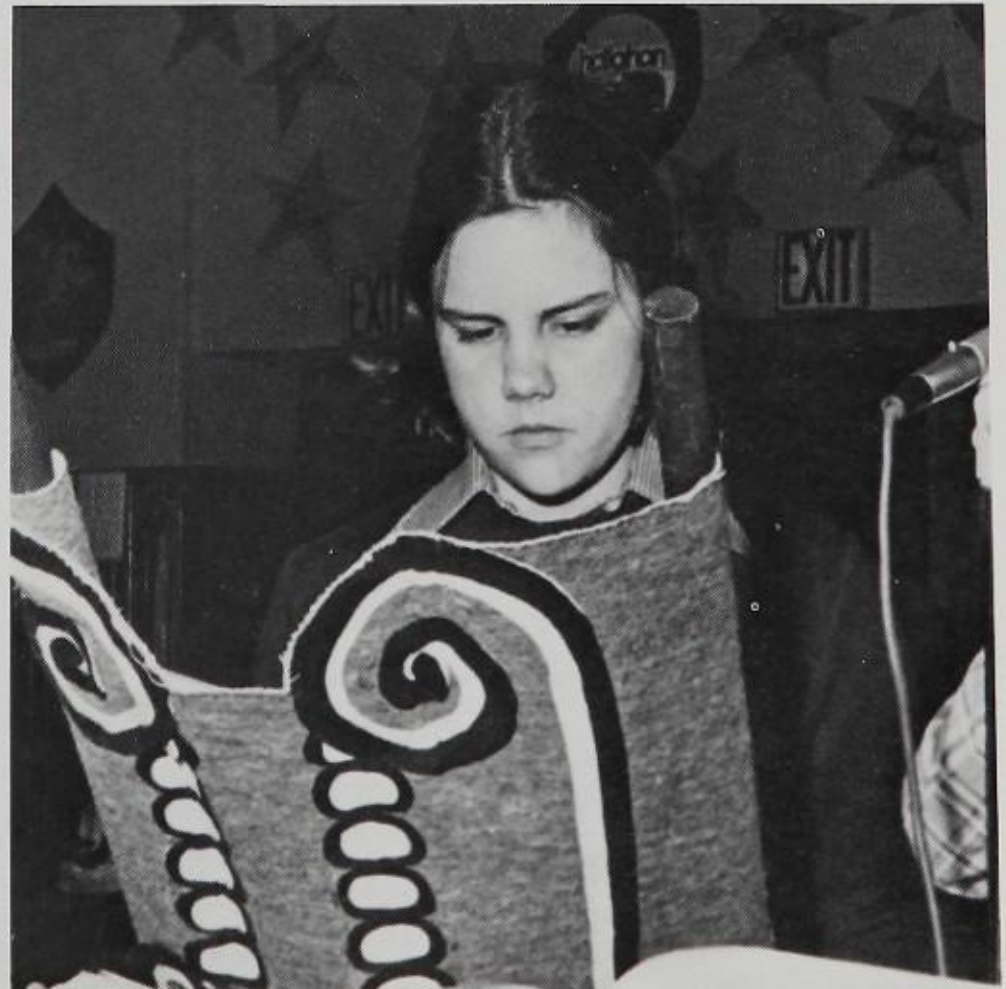

Students view Father Vincent Dwyer's video tape presentation. Father Dwyer is the originator of the Genesis II program.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Alumnae Jubilee Celebration

Hallahan Alumnae Association celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary on Sunday, October 24, 1976. The day began with Mass, in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, concelebrated by John F. Rilley and Father Leo Van Everbroeck, the Homilist. Mass was followed by the annual breakfast at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Sister Alice Anita, Superior-General of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, a graduate of Hallahan High School and former faculty member, was guest speaker. Hallahan received proclamations from both the city and the state, and a gift of $7,500 was presented to the school by the Alumnae Association.

Congratulations from the City of Philadelphia

On the sixth of October, 1976, Mayor Rizzo proclaimed Hallahan Day in the city of Philadelphia. This award was in gratitude to Hallahan for seventy-five years of educational service to the city. Mrs. Ann Marie O'Brien, deputy to the Mayor, read the proclamation aloud in the Mayor's office. Committeewomen and graduates of Hallahan High School, Dr. Ethel Allen and Mrs. Anne C. Verna presented the award to Father Riley, Principal, and Kathleen Cassidy, Student Council President.

THEY COME KNOWING THAT BREAD ALONE
DOES NOT SATISFY;
THEY COME WITH A HUNGER FOR HUMAN WARMTH, TO SATISFY THE HUNGER OF LONELINESS, THE HUNGER OF HOMELESSNESS."

Dorothy Day

Few people in the 20th Century have so taken to heart Christ's message that He Himself lives in each of us and especially in the least of us as has Dorothy Day.

In New York's Bowery where she has spent much of her life she offers more than food and shelter to the downtrodden and the derelict. For almost 50 years, the "down and out" have come to her House of Hospitality to satisfy their hunger for human warmth, their terrible hunger of loneliness. With love and humility she gives to the humiliated.

For almost sixty years, she has championed, protested and insisted on the recognition of Christ in every human being, on the acknowledgement of the dignity of the human person. From woman's suffrage, through civil rights, disarmament, prison reform, Cesar Chavez's farm workers' plight she has demanded the rights of man; in her newspaper, The Catholic Worker, she proclaims the Good News of social justice. Few people of the 20th Century have so given from the heart Christ's message as has Dorothy Day, a radical Christian, as woman with Gospel values.

Linda,
Best of luck in the future and a very prosperous and very nice working world you and all the others too!!!
Love and success in your future goals. Just think this year the Ritz but next year...

Linda,
What can I say to a nice, crazy girl who I went through 13 years of school with? I am glad I have had the experience of knowing you because that is exactly what I wish you experience!!! I wish you attain your goals in life and find happiness. Good luck in everything you do.

Keep in Touch & come see me sometimes
B. M. A
Denise

P.S. - you still the luckiest person I know go on 4-ever!!!
Remember all the nutty things we did at work (punching walls - really?) Keep in Touch!

JE7-9196

Dear Linda;
It's been about a year since we met here at the Ritz, and I'm glad we became good friends! I wish you all the luck in the world in the future (and Jim!)
You really helped me out through some rough times and all the times you came in early for me (I could go on 4-ever!) — What I'm trying to say is, I think your FANTASTIC Love ya
Janice

1. Linda
But it looks always. Hope all my I came home
love and see you soon

Love
Linda

Love
Linda

Love
Linda

"Whatever you do--
prayer, fear, anger,
pleasure, joys,
comings and goings-- that is the stuff of which our little book is made."

Manilus

Linda,
you'll be leaving the city soon, and we'll all miss you when the movers cut up he comes and Anthony when you leave, I'll have you!!! You were the only one to add some life to the young old could stand you take care of yourself and come back and meet us. Good luck
with everything.
Love
Dave
